

WELCOME TO THE ROAD HOLE BAR

If you have a passion for Single Malt Whisky,
It has such rich history.
The appeal to us is no mystery,
There's surely no place better to be.

We have bottles from the past,
Whose drams won't last.
They've emptied their stills,
And now are still.

Now looking ahead, the futures bright,
Making for such a glorious sight.
With techniques new and interesting,
It's time to start investing.

Moving away from showing ages, making a statement,
Now they're getting some specialist treatment.
Casks of Rum, Port and Sherry,
Work to make our taste buds merry.

Vintage runs from Yesteryear,
Bound to make us jump and cheer.
You'll find all of this at Road Hole Bar,
Drink up friend – Slàinte Mhath!

"When we drink we get drunk. When we get drunk we fall asleep. When we fall asleep we commit no sin. When we commit no sin, we go to heaven. Sooooo, let's all get drunk and go to heaven!"

THE MACALLAN

JAMES BOND 60TH ANNIVERSARY

DECADE III

In the 1980s Roger Moore's playfulness gave way to an altogether different tone with the arrival of Timothy Dalton as the next Bond. He was frequently seen re-reading the Ian Fleming texts on set, determined to capture the author's original character study.

Dalton's brooding depth revealed new levels of the character. Through The Living Daylights and A Licence to Kill, Bond's stoic integrity telegraphed the pressures of constant vigilance. He fulfilled his duties heroically, his burden willingly shouldered.

The packaging design features a logo concept art from Octopussy (1983), an A.T.A.C Operations area sketch and storyboard sequence for the film For Your Eyes Only (1981).

COLOUR

Suisse (Swiss) gold

NOSE

Fresh and vibrant notes of lemon and lime, a sprinkle of sherbet, leading into a sweet vanilla and coconut, with a hint of dried fig and raisin.

PALATE

Orange zest and fizzy sherbet with a lemon freshness, gentle oak and subtle ginger spice, leading into a deep dark chocolate, figs and baked apple tart with a honey drizzle.

FINISH

Sweet and long with complexed layers.

THE MACALLAN JAMES BOND 60TH ANNIVERSARY DECADE V

Leaving the 90s behind, Daniel Craig embodies the Bond of the noughties. From his first appearance in Casino Royale, never was a card game presented so stylishly and with more tension in any other film. The setting, ingredients, character and dedication to craft combine to deliver an utterly compelling result.

The packaging design features a dramatic car sequence from Casino Royale (2006), and a digitally sketched rooftop chase in Quantum Of Solace (2008).

COLOUR

Suisse (Swiss) gold

NOSE

Fresh and vibrant notes of lemon and lime, a sprinkle of sherbet, leading into a sweet vanilla and coconut, with a hint of dried fig and raisin.

PALATE

THE MACALLAN RARE CASK

COLOUR

Ruby Red

NOSE

Soft notes of opulent vanilla and raisin give way to a sweet ensemble of apple, lemon, and orange. All balanced by a spicy quartet of root ginger, cinnamon, nutmeg, and clove.

PALATE

This spicy quartet are unwavering. Oak resonates, timeless, polished and rich. Vanilla and chocolate lead the finale along with a light citrus zest.

FINISH

Warming and woody

THE MACALLAN REFLEXION

COLOUR

Blood Orange

NOSE

Fresh zest of orange and citrus fruits. A slight waxy note fades to fresh green apples. Robust notes of chocolate, thick fudge, boiled sweets, aniseed and caramel toffees with subtle white chocolate truffles. Fresh bananas and sweet oak arrives last.

PALATE

Initial light citrus zest with new oak gives way to the succulent sweetness of lemon and orange. Raisin, sultana, and apple, with a hint of cinnamon and ginger, are subtle.

FINISH

Boiled sweets add balance to a glimpse of toasted oak to give a medium and soft finish.

50ml

£275

THE MACALLAN NO. 6

COLOUR

Spanish Sunset

NOSE

Raisin, dates and figs dominate whilst sultana and toffee apples add texture and depth. The weight of flavour from the raisins is dark and rich with great viscosity. Dry ginger and soft cinnamon hint at the edges. Dark chocolate is majestic, vanilla sweetness lingers in the background.

PALATE

Heavy and sumptuous. A rich fruit cake of raisin, dates and figs, apples, sultanas, orange then ginger, nutmeg, cinnamon and hints of clove. Oak notes are like velvet, soft and chic.

FINISH

Silky smooth with a long and full finish.

50ml

£650

THE MACALLAN M

COLOUR

Rosewood

NOSE

Dried fruits ripen, then soften. Vanilla accompanies green apple hand in hand. Ginger, nutmeg and cinnamon create an ensemble in the background, with strong notes of polished oak and a depth of resinous, juicy oranges.

PALATE

The palate opens rich in wood spices, slowly showing all their viscosity. Wood smoke flits in and out.

FINISH

The heavier raisin and sultana flavours take over, meandering to a long full finish.

SPEYSIDE

Speyside is a small part of the Highland region, located around the river Spey in the northeast of Scotland. Although Speyside is very small, no other region contains more operating distilleries.

Speyside Malts are very rich and complex whiskies with notes of fruits, honey, toffee and chocolate.

LOWLANDS

The Lowland region lies south of an imaginary line between Greenock and Dundee. From more than 200 distilleries in the late 19th century, nowadays only a handful are still operating.

Lowland Malts are generally lighter in body and flavour than their counterparts from other regions. They tend to be gentle and subtle, fragrant with herbal and grassy flavours and usually have a relatively dry finish. Since they are not, or only slightly, peated they are an excellent choice for beginners.

HIGHLANDS

The Highlands cover more than half of Scotland and the landscape, with all its lakes and mountains, is world famous.

While malts from the northern Highlands are more salty with notes of seaweed, the whiskies from the east are dryer with more body and a little smokiness and their counterparts from Perthshire are cleaner, lighter and sweeter.

Mark Twain

ISLANDS

Strictly speaking the Islands belong to the highland region but are sometimes referred to as a region of its own simply by geographical reasons. The Island region includes all Scottish islands except Islay.

Island Malts are hard to define since they all have their own individual style. Most of them are peated but less so than the malts from Islay and they are generally complex and powerful drinks, with spicy and seaweed notes.

ISLAY

Known as “The Queen of the Hebrides” Islay is the southernmost island of the Inner Hebrides and is home to eight working distilleries.

Islay Malts are very easy to identify. Heavily peated, very pungent with notes of salt and seaweed on the palate, they sometimes seem to be more of a medicine than a whisky. These Malts are equally loved and hated by whisky enthusiasts all over the world.

Johnny Carson

CAMPBELTOWN

Before Prohibition started in the US, Campbeltown was home to more than 30 distilleries. Its location made it the ideal place to produce whisky for shipping across the ocean. But with alcohol becoming illegal in the States in 1920, the distilleries in Campbeltown started dying and today there are less than a handful still in production. The malts tend to be dry, full bodied with a distinct smokiness and salty notes.

"Now it's closing time, the music's fading out
Last call for drinks, I'll have another stout
Well I turn around to look at you
You're nowhere to be found
I search the place for your lost face
Guess I'll have another round
And I think that I just fell in love with you."
